

The Advisory Guide

Designing and Implementing Effective Advisory Programs in Secondary Schools

Table of Contents

Preface	5
Introduction	9
Chapter 1: Getting Started
What are advisory groups?	11
Are you ready?	15
Establish a research, design, and PR team	16
Background for building buy-in	18
Chapter 2: Advisory Program Snapshots	23
Chapter 3: The Advisory Design Puzzle	37
Design Checklist	41
Goals and Outcomes	43
Grouping	45
Schedule	49
Content, themes, formats	52
Advisors' role and expectations	61
Professional development	65
Accountability for students, advisors and the program as a whole	68
Materials and resources	70
Linking advisory to other school programs	72
Chapter 4: The Bridge between Designing and Implementing: The PR Campaign	75
Tips for faculty and parent presentations	76
Yeah, but	77
"Oh, no! What do you mean there are nine pieces? We started with only two!"
What can we do now?	80
Chapter 5: Facilitation and Formats	83
Facilitation tips for building and maintaining group cohesion	84
Facilitation tips for discussing tough topics	87
Tips for developing interpersonal and intrapersonal skills	89
School – home connections	89
Advisory formats	92

Chapter 6: Activities	109
Community-building, group cohesion and group maintenance	116
Orientation, school citizenship, and school business	137
Personal goal-setting, reflection, and assessment	151
Tools for school and learning	167
Life skills, healthy development, and self-care	184
Moving on to high school, college, or career	224
Real world connections and service-learning	230
Personal passions, hobbies and interests	247
Rituals, celebrations, and closure	252
Rainy day fun stuff	259
Handouts	265
Additional Resources	333
Activity Resources	334
About the Authors	335
About ESR and Partners in Learning	336